Dedicated to all
who are not named after a saint.

Today we dressed up as saints for All Saints' Day.

I dressed up as Saint Thérèse of Lisieux.

ELIZABETH

JUAN DIEGO

The other kids chose saints they were named after.

“Mom, why am I not named after a saint?”

“Your middle name is Gabrielle, like Saint Gabriel the Archangel.”

“And there’s an Irish Saint Ceallach. In English, he’s sometimes called Saint Kelly.”

Hmm . . . that’s not close enough . . .

Maybe I should change my name?

Yes . . . A saint name!

I could be brave like
Saint Joan of Arc.

Guide people like
Saint Lucy.

Be faithful
like Saint Kateri.

Show God's mercy like
Saint Faustina.
